In Memoriam

Billy Keating
BLACKROCK, CORK
SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

May perpetual light shine upon you Dad, and may the good and honest life you lived unfold further in spirit.
May all your past worries find ease in the kindness of clay...
May the remembering earth mind every memory you brought.
May the rains from the Heavens fall gently upon you.
May the wild flowers, the grasses, but most particularly the honey bee whisper your wishes into light...
As we mourn your leaving seven years ago today, September 20th, may we also find comfort in realising how lucky we were to have had such a beautiful man as our Dad.
Second eldest son of James and Mary Frances Keating R.I.P.
Brother to: Harry and departed siblings Ritchie, Jim, Teddy, Bob, Joe, Ignatius and beloved sister Rose R.I.P.
Loving Husband to our lovely Mum Phil (nee Mellamphy.) who died aged 32 years, Rest in Peace (1969), Kate (1992...forever)
Devoted father to: Lil, Bob, Joe, Monica and Karin.
Stepfather to: Helen (R.I.P.), Marian, Dee and Caroline.
Grandfather to: Michelle, Mallory, Eimear, Orla, Peter, Johnny, Jack and Sarah.
Great-grandfather to: Conor, Harry, Amelia and Sean.
Lasting friend to: His Cork Beekeeping and Art class buddies (at Ashton), all Dads' pals in the ESB, Albert Road and Wilton, or anyone who had the pleasure of chatting to him whilst meter reading around Cork.
Your name is spoken every day Dad... we remember you with such love... A single parent for most of your life. You did an amazing job and fulfilled your purpose with such dignity.
God bless you Dad and raise your gentle soul Heavenward.

The Carpenter.
(Written especially for our Dad, by his son Joe).
I ply my trade each day,
With hammer, saw and plane,
In wood I see much more...
A forest I must tame.
I look along its grain,
And ponder what might be...
Something so pure, so beautiful,
Created from a tree.
And I will carry on my craft in worlds anew,
I'll carve a place in Heaven especially for you.
